We admitted innocence

 and they gathered round.
 You mean you don't fuck?

A person offered pictures and tapes--bring art to it, hey? And not a little bit of science, uh, as to size.

   All seemed unnecessarily complex. Is and isn't, an older one commented.

   Many want to show us,
   but we will stay with our ways--which have their own sophistication and wit and fire.

What they don't have is too much.
